

tribute to this remarkable citizen and humanitarian, I urge the youth of America to emulate the patriotism, integrity, and high ideals that have marked his career.

In accordance with section 3 of the joint resolution, I direct that the American flag be flown over the White House on August 10, 1964, in special recognition of the former President's ninetieth birthday, and that it then be presented to him as an expression of our love and respect for him.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the United States of America to be affixed.

DONE at the City of Washington this sixth day of August in the year of our Lord nineteen hundred and sixty-four, and of [SEAL] the Independence of the United States of America the one hundred and eighty-ninth.

LYNDON B. JOHNSON

By the President:

DEAN RUSK,
Secretary of State.

Proclamation 3605

GENERAL PULASKI'S MEMORIAL DAY, 1964

By the President of the United States of America

August 15, 1964

A Proclamation

WHEREAS during the American war for independence a young Polish patriot in exile, Count Casimir Pulaski, joined and fought brilliantly with the Continental Army, was promoted by Congress to brigadier general and commander of cavalry, and organized and commanded a corps called the Pulaski Legion; and

WHEREAS General Pulaski died on October 11, 1779, of a wound received two days earlier while leading a cavalry charge in the city of Savannah, Georgia; and

WHEREAS it is appropriate that we should continue to take pride in General Pulaski's devotion to our Nation and to the cause of universal freedom by marking the one hundred and eighty-fifth anniversary of his death; and

WHEREAS this occasion reminds us of the great contributions made to the progress and security of this Nation by our many citizens of Polish origin; and

WHEREAS it is fitting that we acknowledge our debt to General Pulaski and his countrymen and honor the memory of this gallant Polish patriot:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, LYNDON B. JOHNSON, President of the United States of America, do hereby designate Sunday, October 11, 1964, as General Pulaski's Memorial Day; and I direct the appropriate Government officials to display the flag of the United States on all Government buildings on that day. I also invite the people of the United States to observe the day with appropriate ceremonies in honor of the memory of General Pulaski and the noble cause for which he gave his life.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the United States of America to be affixed.

DONE at the City of Washington this Fifteenth day of August in the year of our Lord nineteen hundred and sixty-four, and [SEAL] of the Independence of the United States of America the one hundred and eighty-ninth.

LYNDON B. JOHNSON

DEAN RUSK,
Secretary of State.

Proclamation 3606

NATIONAL FREEDOM FROM HUNGER WEEK, 1964

By the President of the United States of America

A Proclamation

WHEREAS the United States, as a member of the Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations, is participating with over one hundred other countries of the world in the international Freedom from Hunger Campaign; and

WHEREAS the American Freedom from Hunger Foundation has been established to provide citizen leadership for the Campaign in the United States; and

WHEREAS the farmers of this Nation have produced an abundance of food which this country is willing to share with others; and

WHEREAS industry and labor organizations of this Nation have demonstrated their concern with the world-wide problem of hunger through their willingness to share their technical knowledge and other resources with the developing countries; and

WHEREAS the people of the United States have also demonstrated their concern with this world-wide problem through their generous support of overseas assistance programs of religious organizations, voluntary agencies, and private groups and foundations, and through Food For Peace and other governmental programs; and

WHEREAS there is a need for a rededication of men's minds and hearts to the inspiring possibilities of working together to free the world from hunger:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, LYNDON B. JOHNSON, President of the United States of America, do hereby designate the week of November 15 through November 21, 1964, as National Freedom from Hunger Week.

I ask the American Freedom from Hunger Foundation to take national leadership in planning appropriate observance of National Freedom from Hunger Week; and I urge all Americans to cooperate with the Foundation and to participate actively in the observance of that week.

I direct the departments and agencies of the Federal Government which have responsibilities in the field of food, nutrition, and international relations to take appropriate steps to observe, and to cooperate with private groups in observing, National Freedom from Hunger Week.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the United States of America to be affixed.
